

Free Health & Safety Policy Support for Voluntary Organisations in Sunderland

A local training and consultancy provider is offering a unique opportunity for one voluntary or community organisation in Sunderland to receive tailored, one-to-one support to develop or review their Health & Safety Policy.

This offer forms part of the provider's commitment to social value, helping to strengthen local organisations that play a vital role in supporting communities across Sunderland.

How This Support Can Help Your Organisation

Many voluntary sector organisations operate with limited resources yet still have a legal and moral responsibility to keep staff, volunteers, and service users safe. This bespoke support will help you to:

- Develop a clear, compliant Health & Safety Policy tailored to your activities
- Build confidence in meeting legal and regulatory requirements
- Protect staff, volunteers, and beneficiaries
- Strengthen governance and organisational resilience
- Free up time and resources to focus on delivering frontline services

Whether you're a small charity, community group, or voluntary organisation, this support can help you create safer working practices and demonstrate good governance to funders and partners.
